General Terms and Conditions

Specifications - Seller undertakes that the products furnished hereunder at the time of delivery will meet the specifications referred to on the reverse side hereof. Any other condition or warranty as to the quality of the products furnished hereunder of fitness for any particular purpose is hereby excluded. Buyer shall inspect the products furnished hereunder immediately upon delivery.

Warranty:- The Seller will convey the Product with good title, free from any lawful lien or encumbrance. Seller undertakes that the Product will, at the time of delivery, meet the Seller's then current Sales Specifications. Any change will be notified to the Buyer. All descriptions, drawings, photographs, illustrations, performance and technical data, dimensions, weights and the like, contained in any promotional or technical literature issued by Seller are subject to variation without notice. The above commitments are the Seller's sole warranties in respect of the Products.

Limitation of Liability — In the event of any liability by either party whether arising from breach of contract or from statutes, it is agreed that maximum cumulative amount of damages recoverable shall be limited to the contract price for the products with respect to which damages are claimed. Except as provided by the preceding sentence neither party shall be under any liability to the other party for any other damages, whether direct or consequential, of whatever nature and however characterized.

Incoterms — Trade terms use in this invoice shall be interpreted in accordance with "Incoterms, 2010 Edition" (International rules for the interpretation of trade of the International Chamber of Commerce) as amended.

Interest -Seller reserves the right to charge interest at the rate of 18% per annum on all payments delayed beyond the payment due date or the credit period as stipulated on the invoice and GST will be applicable on the interest so charged.

Force Majeure — In the event of accident, mechanical breakdown of facilities, fire, flood strike, labour trouble, riot, revolt, war, acts of governmental authority, acts of God or similar of dissimilar contingencies beyond the reasonable control of the party affected interfering with the production, supply, transportation, or consumption of the products covered by this invoice or with the supply of any raw material used in connection therewith, the quantity of products provided for in this invoice shall be reduced by the amount so affected without liability but the contract shall remain unchanged. The decision of the party affected as to the quantities of products affected shall be final and binding.

Transportation — where the price herein provides for the absorption by seller of any portion of the freight charges or where the seller provides the transportation, Seller shall have the right to select the means of transportation.

Indemnification — Buyer shall indemnify Seller against all claims, loss, liability and expense on account of any injury or death of persons (including buyer's employees) or damage to property arising out of buyer's unloading storage, handling or use of the product except for the portion of damages attributable to Seller's sole gross negligence. This indemnity obligation of buyer shall survive termination of this invoice /contract.

Complaints and Disputes— In case of any quality or quantity complaints, the Buyer shall notify the Seller within fifteen days from the receipt of goods in writing, with necessary documentary proof from an independent inspection agency. Failure to give written notice of any claim with-in the said fifteen days period or use of the products constitutes an unqualified acceptance of such products by Buyer and a waiver by Buyer of all claims in respect to such products.

Applicable Law — This contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of competent Courts in Mumbai
